

Jones to Congress, America Needs a Federal College Success Agenda.

Discussions about affordability must include the high price of failure because college is more expensive for those who don't graduate.

At a hearing today on college costs,

CCA president Stan Jones called on the US House Education Committee to:

- #1) Measure the progress and success of all students, and
- #2) Leverage every available federal higher education program to boost college completion.
